NEED GOOD HUSBANDS
LINDY'S ADVICE
SPIRIT MESSAGE

—By Arthur Brisbane—
(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

MRS. EDISON WANTS women to go back to the home because they "lose prestige in business."
"Deep down her heart every woman wants a home," the distinguished lady told her hearers. That is true, but every home needs a man to support it and protect it.
Between "losing prestige" and washing dishes and clothes for an incompetent male the intelligent woman decides to relinquish a little prestige.
If every one could find a husband like Thomas A. Edison the problem would be easy.

LINDBERGH GIVES THE League of Nations Transit Section detailed suggestions for aviation standardization of airways, uniform markings and signals, a comprehensive meteorological and radio reporting system, uniform regulations for clearing are suggested.

The recommendations are sound, but the people are too busy to pay attention to recommendations from no matter how high a source.

Except in California and a few other States, we have not been able to agree on a code of automobile signals.

In the great State of New York, for instance, when a man puts his hand out and wiggles it, you don't know whether he will turn to the left, to the right, stop dead, or back up.

CONAN DOYLE'S FAMILY expect messages from him, and they will get messages, many, but they will not come from Conan Doyle.

Mediums, sincere or fraudulent, cannot invent anything from the dead that sounds plausible.

Merely to say "Mama is very happy" or "Papa sends his love" is not convincing.

Men cannot really imagine a spirit life. Therefore, they cannot invent any reasonable message from a soul separated from its body.

WORK HAS ACTUALLY started on the Boulder Dam. Good news.

Probably the power and water, in the end, will be owned by private individuals, paying a small sum to the Government in proportion to cost, peddling the power and water to the public for all the traffic will bear.

But, at least, the water and the power will be used. That is a start.

Later if the people have brains enough to run their own affairs as efficiently as the corporations that exploit them, they will know what to do about Boulder Dam. Muscle Shoals and other properties. Once men did not own even their own bodies or lives. They do not yet own their natural resources. But they will, some day.

IN THE IMPERIAL HOTEL at Prague, Czechoslovakia, ingenious thieves stole $500,000 worth of jewelry from a Chicago lady. A $200,000 pearl necklace was included.

You could not persuade the lady that she is just as well off without the jewelry as she was with it. As well say to a peacock: "You don't really need that tail," or to a lady dancing in Senegambia's hot sunlight: "You don't need that nose ring."

OHIO HEAT WAVE CLAIMS SEVEN LIVES

Horton Smith Leads Bobby At Interlachen

STARTED FRIDAY ONE STROKE TO REAR OF CHAMP

Plays Great Golf While Jones Falters On First Eighteenth

OTHER STARS ARE PRESSING LEADERS

Eagle On 485 Yard 9th Gives Smith Big Advantage

(By The Associated Press) INTERLACHEN CLUB, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 12.—The "Joplin Ghost," Horton Smith, clattered woods and iron instead of bones today, to haunt Bobby Jones' fondest dream of a fourth national open golf championship.

The big blonde sharpshooter was two big strokes ahead of Jones with a total of 50 strokes that he not only threatened to dethrone the Atlanta amateur but had a fine chance of shattering the record of the tournaments history, the great 286 hung up by "Chick" Evans 14 years ago at Minnehaha, Minneapolis.

Fractures Par 70
Going out yesterday one stroke behind Bobby, the "Joplin Ghost," whizzed over rolling Interlachen with a par-fracturing 70, snatching the lead in the championship tussle with a 36-hole total of 142 strokes, two better than par figures for the big stretch. It was a typical Horton Smith comeback and his game was so sound he stood out today as the one big threat to Bobby's hopes of linking his two British conquests into a record-breaking trilogy of golfing triumphs.

Bobby was far from licked however. There are 36 holes of golf ahead of him and Smith today, but as not the type accustomed to crack. He was the acme of steadiness, and his bag always contained a flock of birds and eagles ready to fly out any time.

Smith Seems Determined
As at the end of the first 18-hole round, Bobby today found himself bunkered on all sides by a band of the best professionals in the royal and ancient game. Ahead of him was Horton Smith, grinning but determined. Tied with him stood "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Chicago and Al Lacey, a 23-year-old

GATES ORDERED FOR NEW LAKE

Guilford Work Going On, State Department Of Conservation Says

COLUMBUS, July 12.—Action on one of the most recent of the state park projects, Guilford lake in Columbiana county, came in the form of ordering gates for the outlet which will be delivered within three weeks, word from the conservation department states.

While these gates are in the process of construction, work in preparation for placing them can go ahead at the lake, officials said. The lake will be about 500 acres, when completed and a large strip of land around it will afford a resort for Ohioans.

At the present time the state lakes and lands comprise 30,500 acres, exclusive of the game preserves. The appraised value of this property, according to officials, amounts to nearly $7,000,000.

The lakes are Lake St. Marys, at St. Marys and Celina, the largest artificial body of water in the state and rapidly being developed; Indian Lake, north of Bellefontaine and south of Lima, and now one of the most popular resorts in the state; Buckeye Lake, in Licking county; Guilford Lake in Columbiana county; and Portage Lakes, south of Akron.

Mt. Gilcat lake in Morrow county will be ready to be thrown open to the public during the latter part of August.

The conservation council hopes that it will be able to extend the system of state lakes until there is a splendid body of water readily accessible to any section of the state.

Given Degrees
Seven candidates were given the first and second degrees at a meeting of Willow Grove Grange Friday evening at the hall, southwest of Salem.

WITNESS TELLS OF PERJURY IN MOONEY ACTION

Did Not Know Accused In Bombing, He Tells Eastern Police

BALTIMORE, July 12.—John McDonald, principal prosecution witness against Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings, serving life sentences for the Preparedness day parade bombing in San Francisco in 1916, said today he had perjured himself at the trial and desired to "undo the wrong."

Sought in connection with efforts of the Mooney Defense league to obtain pardons for the two men, McDonald was taken into custody here after being recognized by a neighbor. He was held in a nominal charge of investigation.

After his arrest he issued a statement through an attorney in which he said:

Makes New Statement
"I, John McDonald, aged 58 years, residing in Baltimore city, testified as a witness for the state of California versus Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings. I never saw Mooney until taken to the hall of justice in San Francisco and was told by an officer that this is Mooney (pointing him out to me). My testimony in the various cases was untrue and false. I desire to undo the wrong done by me in sending Mooney to prison regardless of personal consequences. The authorities got me to testify that I identified Mooney but this is an absolute falsehood."

Five years after the conviction of Mooney and Billings McDonald made an affidavit at Trenton, N. J., in which he said he was not positive of his identification of either. The affidavit was used in an effort to obtain pardons.

May Reverse Decision
In refusing to grant the latest pardon petition a few days ago, Gov. C. C. Young of California, indicated his decision might be reversed if McDonald were produced to repeat his repudiation before the governor and the supreme court.

McDonald cannot be compelled to return to California. His appearance before officials there would be voluntary as there are no charges against him and he cannot be extradited to obey a subpoena from the California supreme court. Mooney was sentenced to death but the sentence was commuted.

Many Die As Car Plunges In River

BUENOS AIRES, July 12.—A trolley car loaded with passengers plunged into the river from the Riachuelo bridge this forenoon. Heavy loss of life was feared.

Early estimates said about 70 persons were in the car and that it was believed all had perished with the exception of three who were riding outside. These, it was said, had been picked up in the water.

CHATUAQUA HAS NEW PROGRAM FOR CITY ON JULY 25; THREE PLAYS

Smith W. Brookhart Will Appear On Program, Music, Comedies, Concerts, Junior Town Among Features Of Four Day Stay Here

An interesting program is announced for the coming Redpath Chautauqua which will open its annual visit in Salem, on July 25. A wealth of attractive features with a variety sufficiently wide to appeal to all tastes; discussions of important present-day problems by men recognized in their fields, music of an unusually high order, and in the field of drama, three popular stage successes are on the program.

United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, will appear on the second night and discuss late economic trends with particular emphasis on farm relief and the cooperative movement.

Sensor Brookhart is one of the outstanding men of the newer group of senators from the west, comprising what is commonly referred to as the farm bloc.

Judge Alden of Boston, who will be favorably remembered by former Chautauqua patrons, is back again talking on social and religious questions.

On the third afternoon "Crime and Criminals" will be the subject of the discussion by Judge Frank C. Travers, a lifelong student of our penal laws and judicial procedure.

The Russian Cossack Chorus, Sergei Sokoloff directing, will climax the musical numbers of the week with a concert on the fourth night.

To Hold Artists Day
Artists day will present Hugo Brandt, pianist; Paul Clark, violinist and LaVonne Field, an aryan work with musical accompaniment.

The closing night of Chautauqua will be "Joy night" with the ever popular Vierra's Hawaiians in a novelty musical production, "An Evening in Hawaii" featuring unusual scenic and lighting effects.

On the opening night a play "The Big Pond," a recent metropolitan comedy hit, will be presented.

"The Mollusc," a comedy in three acts by Hubert Henry Davies comes on the third night. Pivots Mackay will be seen in the title role. The play sets forth in comical situations the incidence of the idle rich.

"Junior town" will again be held each day throughout Chautauqua for the young folks; their activities culminating in a big pageant on the last afternoon of the week.

Orchardists Join In 2-County Event
W. H. Matthews of Salem, president of the Columbiana county horticultural society, will lead a group of Mahoning and Columbiana county horticulturists on a tour of orchards. The trip will include a West Virginia orchard.

A full day will be spent on the trip.

All Are Seasoned Vets Of Many Campaigns With Sea-Soldiers
(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 12.—Four outstanding soldiers of the sea, one of them among the youngest major generals in marine corps history, were under consideration today to succeed Maj. Gen. Wendell C. Neville, as commandant of the corps.

The four officers, in the order of their rank, are: Major General Smedley Darlington Butler and Logan Feland and Brigadier General Ben Hebard Fuller and John Henry Russell. The highest ranking officer, General Butler, also was the youngest. He will be 49 at the end of this month.

RELIEF IN HEAT WAVE PROMISED MIDWESTERNERS

Death List Swelled To 74 With Mercury's Rise Friday

MARKS OVER 100 NOT UNCOMMON

Drownings Many; Water Attracts Throngs; St. Louis Hot

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, July 12.—Again today the weather news for middle America read: "Continued hot and bothered."

The "hot" part found no contradictions from the millions who have sweltered nearly a week. The "bother" was attested by collapsing collars and touchy tempers.

Weather reports would indicate that the ceaseless sun had an eye on a new heat endurance record. Today's forecast for Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Missouri said "warmer." In the burning north-west, however, a more hopeful note sounded, with predictions of showers and slightly cooler.

"A break in the warm wave will occur Saturday or Saturday night in the northern and central portions of the middle west," said the Chicago weather bureau.

The number of deaths directly attributable to the week's heat in the middle west was 74 early today, including drownings as well as deaths resulting from prostration. In Iowa alone there have been 25 deaths in the past three days, and in Missouri 24 in the same period. Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas and Minnesota also reported deaths due to the heat.

Temperatures readings of 100 or above have become usual rather than the exception in most of the middle American states.

St. Louis was the hottest metropolis of America yesterday, having an official 104. St. Louis, Mo., reported 112, the highest mark of the present wave. Other official readings for yesterday were: Des Moines, 100; Keokuk, 102; Kansas City, Mo., 100; Omaha, 102; Memphis, 102; Huron S. D. 106; and Peoria, 102.

Chicago, Milwaukee and other lake shore cities continued to enjoy their strategic position, being fanned by cool breezes while sections inland sweltered.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL OPEN LATE

Leetonia Lacks Funds To Operate System For Full Nine Months

LEETONIA, July 12.—Leetonia public schools, lacking in sufficient finances to operate for the full nine month term as in the past, will open for the 1930-31 session in October instead of early in September.

Decision to open schools one month later was made by the board of education at its monthly meeting this week. F. R. Narragon, newly appointed superintendent and will succeed E. P. Stonebraker, resigned, was present at the session.

A three-mill levy for the purpose of providing funds to operate schools for a full term will be submitted to the village's voters in November, the board planned.

Narragon will supervise inspection of all school buildings preparatory to the opening of the fall session.

Final action on placing the levy before voters will be taken at the next meeting of the board.

Violation Of Drug Act Brings Arrest

TOLEDO, July 12.—A hearing for Benjamin Phillips, 30, Chicago, on a charge of violating the national drug act and the state pure food law, revealed that department of justice operatives have been investigating a game alleged to have manufactured and sold counterfeit medicines. Phillips was charged with possession of 1,440 bottles of a so-called drug bearing counterfeit labels of a reputable drug concern.

Death Toll In Mine Tragedy Totals 162

NEURODE, GERMANY, July 12.—The death toll in the explosion which imprisoned most of the crew of the Wenceslaus coal mine near here, below ground, continues to grow.

New calculations today on the number of lives lost indicated 162 miners who Wednesday went down into the shaft to work did not return. Ninety-two bodies have been recovered.

Jailed Burglar Weds County Official

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., July 12.—The romance of a jail trusty who married the deputy county clerk has come to light. Edgar Doss left the University of Illinois and joined a show troupe.

Drunk in Hopkinsville he committed a burglary and was sentenced to six months. He was assigned to clean up the county clerk's office. There he met Miss Ruth Stephens, the deputy.

Given leave he went to Cadiz, Ky., and married her, then returned to jail. He is to join her in Seattle when his sentence expires this month. The sheriff disclosed the secret when Doss frustrated an attempt of other prisoners to escape.

HOOVER AGAIN REFUSES DATA ON NAVAL PACT

May Be Issue Upon Which Battle Against Treaty Will Be Based

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 12.—At the end of its first week of debate on the London Naval treaty, the senate today studied the situation created by President Hoover's refusal to submit certain documents bearing on the negotiation of the pact.

It found itself confronted with the first reservation to be offered and there was a general belief this was attracting substantial support. Some members saw it as the issue upon which the opposition will wage its fight for rejection of the treaty or postponement of a vote until fall.

The reservation, proposed by Senator Norris, independent Republican, Nebraska, would have the senate ratify the treaty "with the distinct and implicit understanding" it is not modified by any documents extraneous to itself and that it is accompanied by no collateral secret understandings.

Advocates of the treaty were divided in their attitude toward the Norris proposal. Some insisted it be approved. Others indicated they would vote for it if the preamble, telling of the President's refusal to produce the documents, is eliminated.

Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, a member of the delegation to London, was outspoken in his opposition. Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee, withheld judgment pending study of the question.

The reservation was proposed late yesterday, shortly after Mr. Hoover's message declining to give over the papers had been read to the senate.

The President's action was vigorously assailed by Senator Johnson, Republican, California. He called upon the senate for action that would be "more than denunciation."

The treaty debate will be resumed on Monday.

25 BIRTHS IN CITY IN JUNE

Dr. Church Gives Monthly Report On Health Conditions In Corporation Limits

Second and Fourth wards led in total births occurring in Salem during the month of June, each registering more than occurred in the combined total listed from the First and Third in the monthly health report submitted by Health Commissioner T. T. Church today.

Twelve births occurred in the Second, and 10 in the Fourth, Dr. Church announced. There were two in the Third and only one in the First.

The total births, 25, exceeded the death toll by nine. There were six deaths in the Second ward, four in the Fourth, and three each in First and Third.

There were 14 communicable diseases here during the month. They were: Measles and scarlet fever each two, undulant fever one, whooping cough nine.

CLEVELAND, July 12.—The novel experience of a two-cent car fare in downtown Cleveland will be given a 30 day trial here commencing Monday. Council approved the experiment today.

The cheap rate will apply only for a single zone of about a mile long, from public square on Euclid avenue to East 18th street. Outside the zone, the regular fare of eight cents, and a one-cent transfer will prevail.

Water Shortage Again In Cleveland Area; Four Are Drowned

(By The Associated Press) COLUMBUS, July 12.—Thunders as Paul was dead today, the first Columbus victim of the present heat wave. He fell dead while at work in an industrial plant. Heat prostration was believed to have caused death.

Four drownings and two deaths due to blazing temperatures were added to the toll of the current heat wave in Ohio yesterday.

Showers, however, are predicted for tomorrow.

Portsmouth sweltered with a temperature of 101 degrees yesterday, breaking a record of several years' standing Cincinnati thermometers read 93.4, high of the year.

The northern part of the state enjoyed somewhat cooler weather, but in the vicinity of Sandusky crops needed rain badly and a number of Cleveland suburbs again faced a water shortage.

Gus Gregorovitz, 58, Youngstown, died shortly after he was overcome by the heat. Illness brought on by the heat caused the death of Roy Shellen, 45, Cincinnati, an engineer employed by an asphalt company.

Herbert Dross, Cleveland, student at Western Reserve University, drowned while diving in Lake Agullia, near Chardon. Edward Roth, 8, drowned at Cincinnati. Eight-year-old Cordray Harmon lost his life in the Maumee river at Defiance. Charles Johnson, 41, Detroit Negro, drowned in a pond at Cleveland.

WESTERN GIRL MAKES RECORD

Believe Altitude Mark Is Set; Was Unconscious While In Air

SAN DIEGO, CAL., July 12.—An unconscious girl slipped in the cockpit of a tiny monoplane as it soared five miles above Lindbergh field was believed today to have achieved a new altitude record for women.

The plane's instruments showed that the pilot, Ruth Alexander, had bettered by 6,500 feet her mark of 20,000 feet set July 4.

In relating her experience of yesterday the girl said she became unconscious when the altimeter showed 22,000 feet, her plane continuing to climb more than 4,000 feet before it hit the ceiling.

"The last thing I noted was 22,000 feet," said Miss Alexander. "My oxygen was pretty low and I was still climbing."

"Then I looked at my altimeter and it showed 18,000 feet. I could not realize what was wrong. I thought something was 'haywire' with the instrument."

"I looked at my oxygen. I still had the tube between my teeth and was holding the stick in my hand, but the oxygen was gone. Then I realized that I had been 'out.'"

"The plane was a gentle left bank, slowly settling. It didn't feel so good, without any oxygen, so I dived pretty sharply to about 7,000 feet, and then came down more slowly."

"The girl brought her 90 horsepower, low-winger monoplane to a safe landing. She was still dazed when attendants lifted her from the plane."

BIGGER AND BETTER CLAIMS

Millard E. Tydings, senator from Maryland, wants President Hoover to lay claim to all areas in the Antarctic which have been discovered or explored by Americans. It is just warm enough to get into the Antarctic spirit and the principle at stake contains enough frictional potentialities to meet midsummer temperatures.

Senator Tydings' purpose is to show Great Britain that when bigger and better claims for territory are to be made, the United States cannot be counted out. The British foreign office's claims to land in the Antarctic have been nothing if not generous. It has laid claim to territory, the senator says, from which the Monroe Doctrine bars Great Britain; it has claimed the Falkland Island dependency, including the territory surveyed by Wilkins and a great deal more; the Ross dependency, which includes the region where Admiral Byrd made his headquarters; and approximately all the other half of polar territory. Great Britain's policy seems to be that wherever there is room for doubt there is room for British claims.

There is, of course, no immediate cause for excitement in possibilities which some day may take shape as conflicting claims for Antarctic territory by the United States and Great Britain, but the present situation naturally arouses considerable interest. What a change in the possibilities of expansion from the day when Christopher Columbus, an Italian hired by Spain, sighted an island off the American coast and made a blanket claim to a continent!

Charles E. Hughes, when secretary of state, expressed his opinion "that the discovery of lands unknown to civilization, even when coupled with formal taking of possession, does not support a valid claim of sovereignty unless the discovery is followed by an actual settlement of the discovered country." That is far, far indeed from the principle upon which empires were built in the past. It is almost as far from the bigger and better claims contest which Senator Tydings would have President Hoover declare between Great Britain and the United States today.

AN UNOPPOSED STEP

The fireworks attendant upon the end of the second session of congress and the beginning of the senate examination of the naval treaty in special session obscured a very important step in the reorganization of federal government. The consolidation of veterans agencies affects services whose combined budgets for the present fiscal year total approximately $800,000,000, but because President Hoover's signature on the consolidation act was unopposed the matter received little attention.

President Hoover's promise to effect certain changes in the federal government listed consolidation of veterans agencies as one of the first steps. Commenting on the official signature gesture which starts the work, Mr. Hoover expressed his belief that the consolidation was one of the most important steps which has been accomplished in his year and a half of office. Certainly it was one of the things expected of the President. If its enactment into law receives far less attention than other less important matters which have been productive of hard words and bitter feeling, Mr. Hoover still has the satisfaction of having made at least one unopposed step.

Major General Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' bureau, will be administrator of veterans' affairs under the new unification program. Gen. Hines, in refusing to accept an important commercial position that the government might profit from his experience, gives surety of a flying start in the extensive reorganization which the consolidation act authorizes. Gen. Hines has announced that there will be an immediate effort to expedite settlement of all cases involving seriously disabled soldiers.

A Southampton hostess gave a luncheon to which the guests came attired in beach costumes. If the waiters spilled coffee it was just somebody's rain, that's all.

What Others Say

SOUND AND FURY IN CHICAGO

The sound and fury which have been generated in Chicago by the Lingle killing are perhaps wholesome manifestations of an aroused municipal conscience, but unfortunately they seem to vary only in intensity from the sound and fury which were being generated a week ago, and a month and a year ago in Chicago. The city, of course, makes the mistake of interesting itself in effects instead of causes; in failing to look past any single gang outrage or any single killing to the culture of corruption, laxity, indifference and inefficiency which gang outrages and gang warfare breed.

The Chicago conflict, with the criminal, after all is not so very much different from any other conflict. It has its root causes and its exterior manifestations, and it can no more be brought to an end by dealing with the exterior manifestations than the phenomenon of the tides can be stopped without reference to the moon. When Chicago resorts to its favorite gesture of inappreciation—the roundup—it is, of course, dealing with the exterior manifestations of a condition. The roundup is a showy, spectacular and impressive piece of police business, just as the department chapeau is a showy, spectacular piece of police business, but they signify, in the last analysis, exactly nothing.

When Chicago seriously embarks on the war to end gang wars and hoodlums it will not bother much about the trench raids that have characterized official activities during the last ten days. It will go back to the lines to find out by what right, and under whose authority and through what conditions the arrogance, greed, dishonesty, and corruption the runway flourishes. Until it does that the "Jake" Lingle will be shot down in broad daylight, and Chicago may take what slight satisfaction it can in such high post-mortem resolves as emanate, with appropriate theatrical gestures from the city hall.—Minneapolis Tribune

Inoculation Effects Relief

Warnings against hay fever are out. Every year we hear a great deal about the sufferings of humanity from this disease. However, there is a bright side to the picture.

For example, the clinics in the 38 hospitals and other institutions in New York City are co-operating with the medical profession and public in giving to sufferers of hay fever inoculations by serum. The list of clinics has been announced in the newspapers and newspapers will take advantage of this preventive treatment.

Hay fever is a catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membrane of the eyes, nose and throat. The exciting cause is the irritation of the pollen from plants and vegetable of various types.

Serums which are prepared from the various pollens are now being used in treating hay fever, with very good results in many cases. These inoculations by serum build up resistance to infection, or at least lessen the violence of the disease.

Early in the Spring the first type of hay fever puts in an appearance. Then the trees are developing and pollen is carried by the wind in every direction. There appears to be no freedom from this time to the period of Autumn frosts.

Fortunate is the victim of this ailment who can get away to the mountains. Another method if escape is an ocean voyage, away from the vegetation that excited it.

When hay fever starts the mucous membrane of the nose swells. There is a steady discharge from the eyes, nose and throat, breathing is apt to be difficult and the patient is generally miserable. There is failure of appetite. The infection creeps down through the bronchial tubes and may even extend to the stomach and intestines. The rest is broken and the patient may have to sleep in a sitting position. It's a pretty bad state of affairs, and the patient is apt to be worn out before cold weather sets in.

"Autumn catarrh" is a good name for this ailment. It is in the Autumn that the pollen from golden rod and the meadow grasses is most abundant.

Every sufferer from hay fever should be very careful of his diet.

He should have plenty of sleep. It is a good thing to use an atomizer with an antiseptic solution, spraying the nose and throat every hour or two. The use of the atomizer should be begun early and continue as long as the disease lasts.

A trip to the mountains or some other high altitude will insure your suffering the minimum amount. You will find many friends in like straits doing this very same thing.

Get away from the dust of the roads and streets, the disability which arises from weak and worry, intense heat and moisture. All these things are factors in this distressing malady. The flowers of Summer and late Fall, the odor of new-mown hay, the grasses, weeds and field vegetation may be equally guilty. But finding a climate that has a clear, cool air is sure to bring less misery and great relief.

The Stars Say—

Sunday's horoscope holds augury of an unexpected change, with probable travel, removal or change of environment, but with only fair promise of advantage or satisfaction. There may be some disappointments and the finances are not well fortified. Loans, litigation and the extravagant use of funds should be avoided.

The one whose birthday it is may look for a year of unexpected change, with probable removal, journeys or new ventures. There may be minor setbacks or anxieties and it would be well not to put funds in jeopardy through loans, litigation or personal extravagance or improvidence.

A child born on this day may be ingenious, original and lean toward the occult, metaphysical or scientific research, which may compensate for small anxieties and financial cares in life.

Monday, July 11

Monday's forecast is a rather perplexing and contradictory one, judging by the conflicting astral mutations. Although the financial situation seems strong and there is good encouragement for increase, expansion and fulfilled ambitions, yet there are many hazards and complications, with the personal tendency to strife, impetuosity and impulsive conduct contributing to the adverse circumstances. Employment, new projects, as well as all personal relations, are threatened by this untoward condition.

Those whose birthday it is are warned of a year of agitation and unhappy and unfortunate conditions unless they determine to meet hostile conditions and adversities with calmness, self-control and wise judgment. With restraint, equilibrium and good management there is prospect of financial growth, expanded business and opportunities and ultimate success.

A child born on this day should be enterprising, aggressive and ambitious, but may need to be well trained and disciplined as to temper and self-control generally.

Ream, will be among other articles placed in the corner stone box. According to the history just compiled, Thomas Kelly and family, of Delaware, were the first Methodists to settle in Salem, about the year 1817.

Members of the Salem Ministerial association have arranged that each of them shall on Sunday morning discuss the subject of "Law Enforcement" with special reference to present conditions. Law enforcement in Salem will probably come in for its share of treatment.

Highlights Of Ohio History

By J. H. GALBRAITH

Hardships endured by two discharged soldiers of the War of 1812, a story of which was carried in the history of Union county, Ohio, suggest how much better the soldiers of the World War were cared for at the time of their discharge than was the case with those earlier war veterans. David Mitchell and James Mather, whose homes were in the Mitchell settlement on Big Darby, were given their discharge papers at Fort Mifflin in the latter part of December, 1813, the war being practically over.

Not only was there no bonus for them, no provisions by the government for the expenses of the change from military into civil life, but not even money for their transportation to their places of enlistment, so they set out through the woods for their homes in the Union county settlement. A heavy rain was followed by a cold wave with a heavy snow, that made the traveling hard and when they reached Mill creek it was found to be a torrent.

They cut down a tree standing on the bank intending to use it as a bridge, but it did not quite reach the other bank and making their way through its top they were wet to the waist. The chill of the water coming right after the vigorous work of chopping down the tree had very serious effect upon Mitchell, whose health was not the best, and they had not gone far when he was seized by a chill and could go no further. He realized that his condition was critical and urged Mather to go on and save himself. Mather would not hear to it, but constructed a shelter at the base of a great tree and made a fire. Then putting dry clothing from his own body on his companion and rubbing his legs he managed to make him fairly comfortable for the night, but with the coming of morning such a fever developed that he knew medical attention must be had if Mitchell's life was to be saved.

So hurrying on to the settlement, he fortunately met three neighbors coming from it, and with their help Mitchell was secured and borne to the settlement, where medical attention was given him. He recovered, but suffered from the effects of this exposure the rest of his life.

WOMEN CHARGED TO PLAY PARTS IN FARM LABOR

Maintenance Of Morale In Marketing Said Vital To Men

COLUMBUS, July 12. — Women can play an important part in cooperative marketing associations in the building and maintenance of morale, Mrs. Charles Schuster, Jefferson City, Mo., acting secretary of the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation, said in an address at the convention of the American Institute of Cooperation here.

Men are too busy with the business of marketing to give time to upholding morale, the speaker said, and it is the woman's role to see to this feature. She explained how the development of the spirit and habit of cooperation is vital, and in this field, "more or less uncoupled, woman will find her place."

Miss Vera McCrea, New York, director of the home department of the Farmers' League, a cooperative association, explained how local associations utilize women in carrying social and educational programs.

Lack of leadership was depicted by H. F. Bowsher, of Lima, a public accountant, as the greatest hindrance to effective farmers' cooperative groups. He said that farmers' elevators fail, not because of lack of cooperation, but mainly because of inadequate money systems.

Average control, stabilization of crop financing, market stabilization and substitute crops and enterprises were listed by W. L. A. Sherman of the U. S. department of agriculture, Washington, as the four major efforts of the early potato committee.

Other discussions today dealt with wool cooperatives, the marketing of grain and work of cooperatives in the field of vegetables and fruits.

HORTON SMITH LEADING BOBBY

car from London, England, now located in Philadelphia, two strokes away was a rugged pair who have tasted the sweets of an open championship—Johnny Farrell of New York and Tommy Armour, the "Black Scot" from Detroit, and another star from Brooklyn, "Wifty" Cox, then three shots away, but always dangerous, were Walter Hagen and Johnny Golden of Darien, Conn.

Bobby had a big chance to take the lead in the second 18-hole round yesterday, but Horton Smith and the treacherous 15th hole combined to wreck his fortunes. As Bobby came to the 15th tee, he had beaten old man par by one stroke.

Hook's His Drive

But there the mischievous old gentleman stopped him cold. Bobby's drive hooked to the deep rough and partially stymied him behind a spreading tree. He pitched out safely 50 yards short of the 408-yard green. Then his approach was too strong, his pitch too timid and he collapsed by missing a four-foot putt. The par-four hole had cost him six strokes, pushed him over par and ruined his temperament. He came back with a birdie on the next hole, but went one over perfect figures on the short 17th and ended with a par four and a 73 card for the round. It was a hard blow for Bobby, who had turned the first nine in a great 34, two strokes under par. He was peevish as he came to the clubhouse.

Eagles 485 Yard Hole

Horton got his margin on the outward journey yesterday. He stroked all but two holes in par, on the second he ran down a birdie three and added a screaming eagle on the 485 yard ninth, where he sank a long putt. Lake Jones and the rest of the leaders, he was in constant trouble coming home, but escaped with a 70, which tied Lacey for the best score of the day and equalled the best rounds turned in by MacDonald Smith and Armour.

It required a total of 150 strokes on better to enter the charmed qualifying circle permitted to play the final 36 holes today. Fifty eight had 155 or better and three were 11 tied at 156. Rules called for the low 60 and ties to contest the final rounds, among those who just got in were "Chick" Evans and Don K. Moe, youthful amateur from Portland, Oregon, and member of the American Walker cup team.

THE HOME KITCHEN
By Jeannette Young Norton

With the growing use of mechanical refrigerators, it is now quite easy for the average cook to prepare delicious sherbets in her own home. Sherbets don't require turning are easy to prepare and form a delicious addition to any meal. While fresh fruit is plentiful, sherbets can readily be a regular part of family menus and delight most of the family.

Any fruit can be used—all the berries, plums, apricots, peaches, or whatever is available. The method of preparation is the same, and only the flavoring will vary. Some fruits will require a little more sugar, others being a bit too sweet in themselves are improved by the addition of some lemon juice. "Flavor to taste" is the safest rule, also one must be careful not to over-sweeten. If the sherbet is to accompany a meat dish, like lamb, then a tartness is preferable to anything cloyingly sweet.

Plum Sherbet
1 cup of juice
1 cup of pulp
1/2 cup of water
2 egg whites
1/2 cup of cream
Sugar
Lemon juice
Pinch of salt

Place the fruit and water in a saucepan, adding sugar if needed—

The end of selfishness is always a bitter one. The self-seeking person may think that this is the sad experience of many that proves otherwise. You must place your own interests in the background if you would truly follow the Christ. If happiness is your goal, then go the opposite way to selfishness. If you seek the way of fellowship with God, certainly you will not find it by placing self upon the throne. Jacob could only be used of God when his heart was free from selfish desires.

Morning worship, 11, sermon, "Remembering Our Savior." Order for Public Confession; Holy Communion.

The far distant past easily fades from our minds. We quickly become engrossed with the interests of our present life and day. Jesus Christ saw with what hindrances His Kingdom would meet today. He pleads that we remember Him. So as we gather about the Lord's Table and partake of His Body and His precious Blood through the earthly means of bread and wine, we vividly remember our Lord, who through the centuries has loved us most dearly. How ungrateful we are if we do not remember Him. "I do not remember Thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth." Psalm 137:6.

A brief meeting of the church council will be held after the morning service.

Steubenville To Hold Open Sunday

STEUBENVILLE, July 12—Sheriff William Yost's drastic Sunday closing orders seemed to be undergirding a softening process here today with the official announcement that no arrests would be made, gasoline could be sold to tourists, doctors and buses and that folks playing golf on the municipal links or swimming in any of the municipal pools would not be molested.

As far as other places are concerned, the sheriff plans merely to tour the county gathering "evidence" as to violators and later file informations against them.

They will convene here next June for their 11th annual meeting.

The organization has chapters all over the world, wherever American forces are stationed. New England chapters are located in Boston, Worcester, Springfield, Portland, Me., Hartford, and New London, Conn. and Newport, R. I.

Boston won the battle for the convention in the face of stiff competition from New Orleans and Kansas City. The color surrounding the tercentenary anniversary of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and booklet showing views of the city and impressing its historical connections won the convention for the Hub.

TIGERS HUMBLE TRIBE; DISPLAY POWER IN WIN

Sectional Results In Few Surprises In Either Major Circuit

The somewhat incomplete intra-sectional play of the major league clubs which came to a close with yesterday's beginning of a new east-west movement, brought few surprising results in its general emphasis of the fact that a good ball club is successful no matter where the games are played.

The unexpected downfall of the Chicago Cubs and the rise of the Detroit Tigers were the only results which were unforeseen. The Cubs lost a whole four game series at Cincinnati and wound up near the bottom of the National league list with two victories and five defeats. The Tigers smashing out a final victory yesterday, took four of five from the Cleveland Indians after gaining a 3-2 edge over Chicago for a total of seven victories in 16 games.

Detroit Shows Power
Detroit showed a lot of power in yesterday's game. This victory put the Tigers ahead of the champion Philadelphia Athletics, who won six and lost three in the intra-sectional series and second only to the Washington Senators, who won seven out of eight from Boston and New York. The Yankees went through a serious slump, winning but two out of eight games.

The Chicago White Sox closed their nip and tuck series with the St. Louis Browns in the other American league game, gaining a 5 to 3 decision to take sixth place again by a half-game margin. Pat

Caraway had only one bad inning, the Browns scoring all their runs in the third, and gave the Sox an over break in 19 intra-sectional games.

Reds Trim Phillies
The suddenly triumphant Cincinnati Reds opened their tour of the eastern division of the National league yesterday as Pittsburgh and St. Louis ended the fraternal strife among the western clubs.

The Reds, hitting effectively behind the pitching of Red Lucas, defeated the Phillies 5 to 3. Lucas had the better of a duel with Earl Conrad, giving both eight hits, and contributed the finishing touch to the victory in the form of a home run in the ninth inning.

The Pirates slammed three Cardinal pitchers for 16 hits to win the series final 6 to 2, and divide the six game set. Despite this result Pittsburgh was below the 500 mark in the intra-sectional play and the Cards were at the top. St. Louis won six games and lost three, equaling the record of the New York Giants against Phillies and Brooklyn. The Robins came in second with five victories and three defeats and due to Chicago's losses took a firm hold on first place.

Six thousand persons fell in deels during 10 years of the reign of Henry IV.

Carnera Draws Many To Youngstown Park

The showmanship of the ring was brought into display for a gathering of more than 5,000 fight fans at Youngstown with Primo Carnera, mighty mammoth of the squared circle, playing the principal role last night.

In a well rehearsed four-round exhibition, the behemoth of swat from Italy gave an impressive exhibition of his speed in competition with two of his sparring partners.

He impressed the crowd also with his immensity but nevertheless failed to prove to be other than a great sideshow attraction.

Paul Pirrone of Cleveland twatted George Russell, of Brooklyn as the latter put forward his gloves to apologize for a low blow and the main go, scheduled for 10 rounds, ended in less than two minutes.

Babe's Injury May Be Costly
Babe Ruth, king of klouters, gazes ruefully at the injured finger of his left hand. Babe tore the nail off when attempting a difficult catch in the outfield. It is impairing his batting ability to such an extent that the Yankees' pennant chances and the Babe's home run record are being threatened by the injury.

SANHUBER FREED IN DEATH CASE

Manslaughter Conviction Results, But Time Limit Effects

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Slipping through a legal loophole, Otto Sanhuber, alic lawyer, was free today, although convicted of slaying Fred Oesterreich, wealthy Milwaukee manufacturer, in his home eight years ago.

A jury found Sanhuber guilty of manslaughter instead of murder, and thereby gave him his liberty. Yesterday the court ruled that the verdict must be set aside on the ground the statute of limitations for manslaughter is three years.

For more than 10 years Sanhuber had lived in small cities in the Oesterreich homes here and in Milwaukee as the clandestine sweetheart of Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich.

One evening, Sanhuber told the grand jury which indicted him, Oesterreich quarreled with his wife, Sanhuber testified he crept from his attic and shot Oesterreich with his feared Mrs. Oesterreich was being injured. This confession he repudiated during his trial for murder.

The case was revived when Herman Shapiro, former attorney for Mrs. Oesterreich, revealed the existence of the attic lover. The woman still faces trial.

Sanhuber left the Oesterreich home five years ago and was married two years ago under the name of Klein.

MOVIES

THE GREATEST war picture to have been produced since the World War, one which expresses vividly the grim realism of life behind the trenches, comes to the Grand theater as the outstanding event of the month in Salem theatrical circles. The drama plays here for three days starting its run Monday.

It is "Journey's End," an all-talking production based on the play which is still establishing attendance records in a score of American and English cities. The production is rated even higher than "Wings," a war drama which was awarded laurels three years ago for its pictorialization of spectacular aerial battles and realistic scenes of battlefield life.

Colin Clive Heads Cast
Colin Clive, noted British actor who played in the Original "Journey's End" as it was exhibited in London, plays the leading part, enacting the role of Captain Stanhope, nerve-shattered captain who attempts to forget the death of his buddies and his love for a girl left behind with cognac and other beverages. Other characters are: Ian McLaren, California actor who played the part of Jesus Christ in the great Passion Play as portrayed in the west; David Manners, Thomas Whitely and others.

The only mention of a feminine character in picture comes in the reminiscent conversation of the warriors as they are seated in the shell-shattered trenches. No actress is in the picture otherwise than imaginatively.

State Opens Friday
The State will open Friday for the showing of "Seven Keys to Baldpate" starring Richard Dix in Earl Derr Bessie's famous novel. Biggers, a former Ohioan and personal acquaintance of several Salem residents, was born in Warren and is one of the country's leading novelists.

The picture is Dix' latest talking venture. It will play at the State only Friday and Saturday.

The third feature event of the event of the movie schedule is the presentation of "Mamba" at the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Jean Hersholt is the leading player, supporting characters being enacted by Eleanor Boardman and Ralph Forbes. Miss Boardman appeared in Salem in the stage production, "Nothing But the Truth" several years ago.

The picture narrates the story of August Bille, the most despised man in New Posen, feared by the natives, incited by his own countrymen because of his brutality, and hated by women, both white and black, because of his immorality.

Vivid Plot
The plot thickens with an old-time idea, that of a girl selling herself to save her father from debt and dishonor. The Countess von Linden, played by Miss Boardman, marries Bille then falls in love with Karl von Reiden, enacted by Forbes. Then the war of 1914 is declared and German and British subjects, once the best of friends united against their common enemy, savages, mobilize for the holocaust that exacted lives of millions.

The plot is old but the picture is previewed as one of the greatest in which Miss Boardman, Harsholt and Forbes have ever played.

The three productions furnish for fans a variety of entertainment. "Journey's End," a tragic story of wartime as really the inevitable exacts of man; "Mamba" love, romance, a little tragedy then "Seven Keys to Baldpate," mystery, much comedy, humor and adventure with a dash of romance.

Juvenile Grangers Take Part In Event

The juvenile grangers presented the program and four applications for membership were accepted at a meeting of Goshen grange Friday evening at the hall, northwest of Salem.

These numbers were included in the program: Recitations, Ruth Burton and Donald Fogg; dialogue, "A New Game," Richard and Eugene Rhodes and Robert Burton; piano duet, Ruth and Mabel Burton; recitation, Virginia Kamper; vocal duet, Elizabeth and Wade Wilson; recitation, Junior Rhodes; piano solo, Averil Campbell; reading, Genevieve Holloway; vocal duet, Josephine Cobb and Doris Miller; recitation, Laura Belle Hull; selection by a quartet composed of Genevieve and Lella Holloway, Doris Miller and Lella Holloway; play, "Examination Day" and song, "The Future Grange" both by the entire juvenile grange.

On Tuesday evening Goshen grange will go to Greenford grange to give the candle lighting ceremony.

SLAYER DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Lawrence Dull Pays With Life For Killing Of Fostoria Men

COLUMBUS, July 12—The little red light over the electric chair in Ohio penitentiary's death house had gone out today and with it the life of Lawrence Dull, 26-year-old Tiffin slayer of Roy Tish, Fostoria filling station operator.

Dull, formerly a laborer, went calmly to the electrocution chamber at 9:04 last night, he was pronounced dead at 9:11.

Dull was costless when he entered the chamber, and his sleeves were rolled up, his last moments were spent with Chaplain K. E. Wall, Protestant chaplain at the prison, but he chose Rev. Fr. Albert O'Brien Catholic prison chaplain as his companion during the final moments.

At the time of the execution several of Dull's relatives, including his stepmother, Mrs. Eva Dull, arrived at the penitentiary in an automobile. As she stepped from the car, Mrs. Dull collapsed, she was carried into the prison lobby where Mrs. Preston E. Thomas, wife of the warden summoned a physician.

Attorneys last night made an eleventh hour effort to save the life of the killer when they completed a hurried trip from Columbus to Camp Perry to see Gov. Cooper. They presented a signed statement from Kenneth Brown, Dull's underworld companion, in which he stated he and Dull did not enter the filling station on the night of the killing with intent to rob. The governor, at Camp Perry in connection with the national guard encampment, declined to grant a reprieve.

EMPLOYEES RUN CANNING PLANT

Owners Turn Stock Over To Men In Plant Without Cost; Profits Are Large

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 11—In celebration of the thirteenth anniversary of a social-industrial experiment in business management employees of the Columbia Canning company today took over 51 per cent of the stock of this company which last year did $1,600,000 business.

The 150 employees through their stock ownership were placed in a position whereby they might discharge the company president, William P. Haggood. The president said he would remain at the head of the company only so long as his co-workers desired.

The employees of the company, which manufactures soup, acquired the stock without paying for it. Accumulated profits were used to purchase the stock which was given outright to the employees.

TWO KILLED IN AIRPLANE WRECK

Friend's Wave of Pilot Thought Reason For Crash Near Bathing Pool

DAYTON, July 12—A pilot's friendly salute to an acquaintance below today was believed to have caused the deaths of two men in an airplane crash near here late yesterday.

The pilot, Earl Dietrich, 23, and his passenger, George Davies, 24, both of Dayton, were the victims. Witnesses said Dietrich apparently lost control of his plane as he swooped low to wave at an acquaintance in a bathing party on the estate of R. H. Grant, vice president of the General Motors corporation. The plane turned upward, then suddenly dropped to earth near the bathing pool. It was believed that the motor stopped while Dietrich was waving to those below and that he became confused.

Dietrich was dead when taken from the wreckage. Davies died before he could be taken to a hospital.
